

Q1: Name/Years in Blizzard Program

Dylan Criquet Danielson 6 years

Q2: How many balls do you think you have hit off a tee during your Blizzard career? (please be as specific as possible)

I'd say around 30,000.

Q3: What was your favorite Blizzard memory on the field?

Winning the Kernals tournament in Iowa and getting the bid to play at Jupiter.

Q4: What was your favorite Blizzard memory off the field?

Just any time that I got to spend with the team whether it was at the hotel, a restaurant, or some kind of bonding activity.

Q5: What was your favorite field you played on while wearing a Blizzard uniform?

Lake Point

Q6: What is something Barta always says?

"Come on you sack of seaweeds!"

Q7: What advice would you have for the younger kids in the Blizzard program?

Enjoy the time while you have it, it really flies by. Get the most out of everything practice, lesson, and game because that's what's going to help you pursue your dreams of playing college baseball

Q8: What example of the Blizzard Big 5 do you use in your daily life? (acceptance of responsibility, loyalty, humility, synergism, kaizen)

I like the kaizen one. I make sure that everyday I get better in at least one area of my game whether it's fielding, hitting, throwing, running, or getting stronger.

Q9: Who was the most memorable coach you had during your Blizzard Career and why?

Eddie Gerald. He's humor makes being around him always fun and his knowledge of the game, especially hitting, can take you to the next level.

Q10: Finally, any last words you have for the Blizzard Program?

Thank you to the Blizzard Program for everything you've done. You haven't just taught me how to be a better baseball player but yet a better person. The things I learned throughout the years will take me a long ways in life and I'll never forget them. On the baseball side of it, thank you for getting me to where I am today. All the blizzard practices, lessons, and tournaments have really helped me to get where I am today. I couldn't be more thankful to have family like you guys to help me in all aspects of life.
