Kurth, because he was always helpful and was so energetic and interactive with the players where ever you went.

Q10: Finally, any last words you have for the Blizzard Program?

Honestly, for how little of time I played in this program I loved every minute of it. I loved every guy I played with because they all had a passion for the game I love. I am going to miss getting up at 4:30 in the morning to make one of the early practices at the dome. And hitting at the academy was always fun. The coaches were also always so clear and helpful with everything they would help us with. I will miss this program.
