

Join Us in Giving to the Max.

OUR GOAL

Our after-school program has been so successful, we're doubling in size. We are looking to secure funding for 8 students.

For a year of programming, food, and mentorship - it costs $1,500 per kid.

POWER HOUR SPONSORS

We have generous donors who have committed to matching funds during certain hour!

Be sure to set you alarms to meet the mach!

CLICK HERE TO GIVE!

8<sup>A</sup>M

BULLSEYE MEDIA - $500 MATCH

For the past few years, Bullseye Media has served as JP4's dedicated media specialist, where Brian and his team fearlessly tackle every challenge, consistently delivering their best. Explore their expertise at BullseyeMedia.com!

9<sup>A</sup>M

HUTH FAMILY - $500 MATCH

On their first date, Jeff pitched Natice the idea of leaving his teaching career to help start the JP4 Foundation. Eight years on, four years wed, and a mini-sheepadoodle named Bonnie in tow, the Huth family remains dedicated to the JP4 Foundation's growth.

12<sup>P</sup>M

GILLISPIE-COEN FAMILY - $500 MATCH

Kelli and Steve have been with the foundation since day one. From supporter to board member and now co-chair, Kelli continues to dedicate her time to further the growth of the JP4 Foundation across the Twin Cities.

1<sup>P</sup>M

CUMBLAD FAMILY - $500 MATCH

Having joined the board of directors last year, Austin brings an extensive wealth of knowledge and a powerful network to the organization. With two adorable, lively kids, Austin and Liz have their hearts and hands happily full!

The JP4 Foundation is a Non-Profit Organization recognized by the IRS as a 501(c)(3) public charity. 100% of all donations will be used for the development of the infrastructure, programs, and services of The JP4 Foundation. All donations are tax-deductible to the extent permitted by law. EIN: 81-2968738

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can unsubscribe from this list.