

An Ask from Our Executive Director

watch Hsa Htoo Lay's video

When Hsa Htoo Lay first joined JP4's Diamond Club, he was withdrawn and avoided all interaction. However, after a year in our program, Hsa Too Lay has transformed. He now openly communicates with mentors and actively participates. He has advocated on behalf of other children and informed his mentor that he will never attend another school "that does not have Diamond Club". His engagement is a testament to the power of positive relationships.

We want to bring this experience to more kids, but we need support to make it happen. Specifically, I am looking to enhance our corporate support network and would greatly appreciate any introductions you might have to individuals in roles such as:

corporate responsibility | community relations | community engagement | executive leadership | philanthropy manager

If you're interested in exploring ways to collaborate or have potential leads in your network, I would be grateful for the opportunity to connect and strategize with you. Thank you for your continued support and commitment to our cause!
